Questions 21-22

Do you enjoy the outdoor activities? Do you like excitement? If your answers are “Yes.”, then you must try river tracing! For this activity, a guide takes you on an adventure along a river. You climb rocks, jump down waterfalls, and let your body flow with the waves of the river. It’s a lot of fun, but you have to be careful. It’s necessary to wear proper clothing. First of all, you need a helmet. This protects your head from rocks. Secondly, you should also wear a wetsuit. It keeps your body warm from the cold water. Last but not least, you must wear boots and gloves. They help you climb more easily.

21. What kind of people would most likely enjoy river tracing?
- (A) People who love to stay home and play online games.
(B) People who enjoy reading in the library.
(C) People who enjoy going hiking and taking adventures.
(D) People who like to go to the movie theaters on the weekend.
22. Why should people who go for river tracing wear a wetsuit?
- (A) It helps them climb rocks safely.
(B) It helps them swim faster in the river.
(C) It protects them from falling rocks.
(D) It keeps their body warm from cold water.

Questions 23-25

Michael was taken to the hospital when he got the serious flu. Since he got home, he has seemed to lose desire for food. He eats much less than he did before. Looking tired, he eats little and slowly. He gradually loses his weight. Besides, he talks less and less. He used to be an early riser, but now he has started to sleep in. However, he often complains about loss of sleep due to the problem of not able to fall asleep soon after he lies in bed at night. In the past, he would take a walk in the park in the morning and chat with the other old men. Now, he stays at home all day, either staying in bed or dozing off in his armchair. When the phone rings, he will not answer the phone even though he happens to sit beside the telephone. Sometimes he will feel sad all of a sudden and think there is nothing worth living for.

Michael’s behavior is a typical case of depression. The percentage of old people who suffer from some form of depression is above ten according to a study. However, the signs of depression are usually ignored. We have to pay more attention to the elder people around us. If the elder family members suffer from such problem, more accompany and concern may help them feel better.

23. What is the main point of the passage?
- (A) To describe the signs of depression.
 - (B) To say that Michael is a strange old man
 - (C) To show how terrible the flu can be
 - (D) To explain the bad effects of not getting enough sleep
24. A person who gets depression may behave differently from the way he/she was in the past. Which one is not one of the differences?
- (A) losing weight
 - (B) getting lost easily
 - (C) becoming quiet
 - (D) can't sleep well
25. What is the point of the passage at the end?
- (A) We should avoid getting depression.
 - (B) We should exercise more to keep healthy.
 - (C) We should pay more attention to old people around us and accompany them more.
 - (D) We should not bother the elder people around us.
